Key changes to WA medicinal cannabis dispensing and prescribing practices

Little Green Pharma Ltd (ASX: LGP) ("LGP" or "the Company") welcomes recent updates to Western Australia's medical cannabis prescribing and dispensing regulations, which will provide significant benefits to WA patients and prescribers and which follow years of advocacy by LGP and supporting practitioners.

Key changes

1. Local dispensing of interstate medicinal cannabis

Western Australians can now have Schedule 8 medicinal cannabis prescriptions issued by interstate telehealth clinics or prescribers dispensed at local WA pharmacies, eliminating the previous requirement for interstate dispensing and postal delivery. This change enhances patient access, giving them greater control over pharmacy choice, and creates opportunities for superior local price competition. The Company anticipates that this reform will address long-standing WA patient concerns about access and cost and significantly improve their treatment experience.

2. Streamlined prescribing process for WA doctors

WA prescribers no longer require the WA State Health CEO's authorisation to prescribe medicinal cannabis products for eligible patients. Removing the need for prior CEO authorisation reduces administrative burdens and facilitates a faster, more patient-centric prescribing process.

These regulatory updates enhance WA's alignment with national medicinal cannabis guidelines while maintaining robust safeguards for patient and public safety.

Impact on LGP

As a company headquartered in WA and with a large West Australian patient base, these changes significantly benefit LGP's operations, with enhanced local dispensing options and streamlined prescribing protocols empowering LGP to better support its WA patients, strengthening their confidence in medicinal cannabis treatments and improving access to affordable care options.
